SIA NORTH EFFECT - functional products from nature since 2016

One of the most experienced and innovative manufacturers in Northern Europe, offering a wide range of functional products made from natural ingredients.

New and improved recipes are continuously developed, following consumer lifestyles, dietary trends, and innovations in nutrition.

The key to the company's success and uniqueness is the use of only natural raw materials, while creating functional value in each product.

Raw materials are sourced from Latvia, other Northern European countries, or the countries of origin for exotic products, exclusively from certified suppliers.

North Effect also caters to individual orders:

- in BIO-standard product groups
- for Private Label
- with Original recipes
